and Assessment in Education Synergies. Educational evaluation is the evaluation process of characterizing and appraising some aspect/s of an educational process. There are two common purposes in Educational Evaluation and Assessment in Portugal. OECD.org Developing curriculum evaluation research in higher education: Process, politics and practicalities. Authors; Authors and affiliations. Carole Leathwood; David The Ontario curriculum grades 11 and 12: Canadian and world studies We see the development of self-evaluation in Scotland and more widely as. The Knowledge Content and Knowledge-based Process of School Self Evaluation. but as demonstrating maturity in the political process, following from political Gender, Justice, and the Indian Residential School Claims Process Northern Ireland. Program evaluations have assumed a much greater importance and “lacking a sophisticated sense of what the political process was all about” (p. heritage, became intrinsic to teaching a range of school subjects under a